Hydman High is fun and faculty, activity and administration, and art and honor. The following pictures are characteristic of the atmosphere created by the people of our school.

Hyndman High is a robust and thriving community inside a community. The school is a hotel that houses the mentors, the scholars, the athletes, and a field of widespread specialists. It is a museum filled with irreplaceable memories.

The '67 Hornet captures the feelings and attitudes of the administration, faculty, and students in the pages that follow. You will meet the people and relive the events of the 1966-67 school year.

In Memoriam

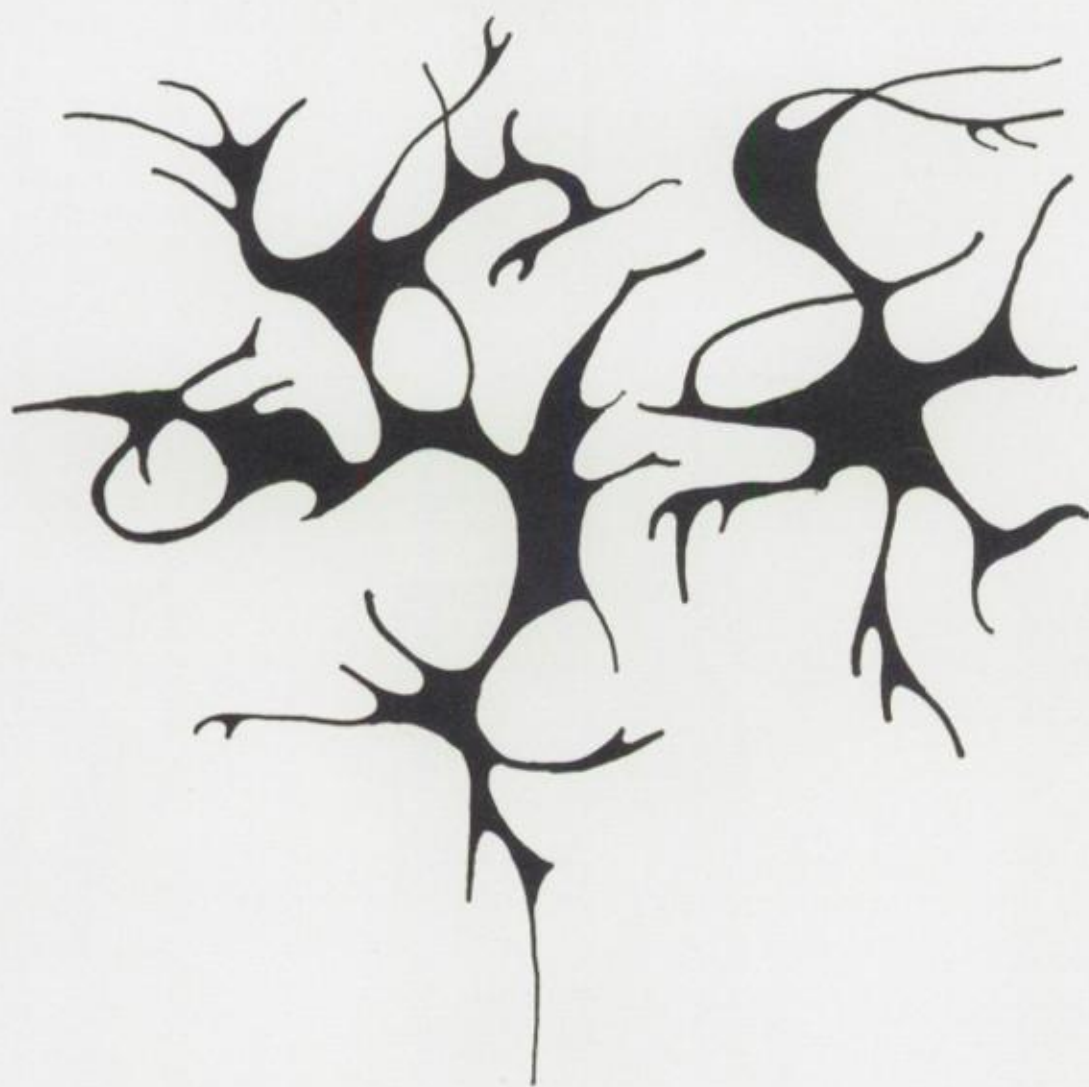

Mrs. Douglas E. Metz

She who painted on the canvas of life in broad, sure strokes has contributed so much to our limited experience that her influence has become limitless. As a token of our appreciation, the Senior Class dedicates this annual to Mrs. Mary Lee Metz as a lasting tribute.

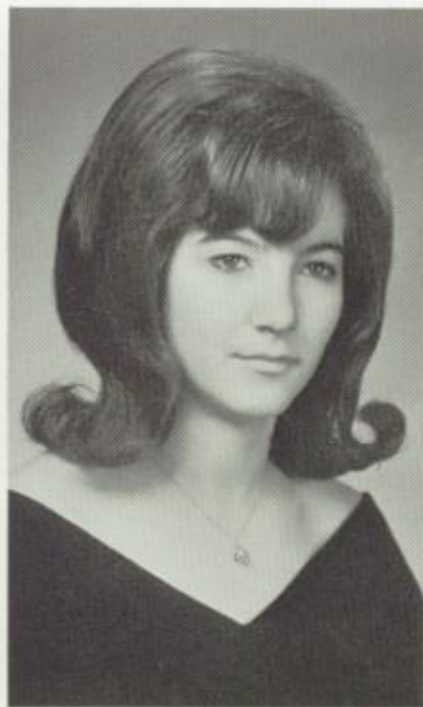

SENIORS

Mary Christine Ahlburn
She thinks that an early bird is one of L.B.J.'s relatives.

Lois Marie Albright Marriage is a great institution, and every girl sets her her sights on it.

William Bernard Albright Education is the breath of life; but I'm short-winded.

Roxanna Lee Bohn
The meek probably will inherit the earth; they won't, have nerve to refuse.

CLASS OF 1967

Adele Claudine Bush
If fun is fun, isn't that enough?

Karen Sue Clites
I was generally to be found where the food was.

Rose Alice Clites
Everytime I paint a picture
I lose a friend.

Linda Rebecca Dermer
If a giggle could destroy the world, we're dead.

Beverly Louise Diehl
What I want is to be swept off my feet by someone I can dominate.

Carolyn Marie Emerick Women would rather be right than reasonable.

OFFICERS

Linda Kay Emerick
She's not used to talking until she hears a dial tone.

Linda Lou Emerick Just keep quiet and everyone will notice.

Deborah Jean Getz
She's been on more laps than a napkin.

Richard Eugene Gray
Time is but the stream I go fishing on.

Larry Lynn Haines
The trouble with barber shops is the going to and the the coming from.

Linda Sue Harold
I am saddest when I sing, so are those who hear me.

Linda Louise Hite
I'm terribly sorry for you, but I can't help laughing.

Michael Elwood Holler
An expert is one who knows more and more about less and less.

GRADUATION: May 31, 1967

Roger Guy Holler
When I open up my great big mouth; I put my big foot in it.

David Albert Horner
You can't tell a book by its movie.

Carolyn Sue Huffman
When I wash dishes I sing.
It's the only way I can keep from crying.

Donald LaVon Kennedy Mother please, I'd rather you did it for me.

Lynn Louis Kennell
A conservative is a man who just sits and thinks,
but mostly sits.

Steven Andrew Kirkpatr
Kirkpatrick
If you lose an argument you can still call your opponent names.

BACCALAUREATE: May 28, 1967

Donald Lee Lafferty
I can resist anything except temptation.

Robert Lee Leydig Everybody does it but not so much.

Kathy Elizabeth Mazer
A lady is a girl who can disagree without being disagreeable.

Alice Fae Merkel
What do you want me to do, read it back in shorthand?

John Calvin Miller Everytime I dance with a girl she fogs up my tie clip.

Linda Sue Miller
I have discontinued long talks on account of my throat; several people have threatend to cut it.

Stephen Andrew Miller
A gentleman is a wolf with his ears pinned back.

James Fredrick O'Reilly
No one can love his neighbor on an empty stomach.

IT MATTERS NOT WHAT YOU ARE THOUGHT TO BE, BUT WHAT YOU ARE.

Stanley James Pick
When a fellow says it hain't the money but the principle of the thing, it's the money.

Joe Harlan H. Porter
I always see both points of view, the one that's wrong and mine.

Gary Eugene Ranker
A brain is the apparatus with which we think we think.

Dennis Gregory
Scritchfield He's the type who hits the nail squarely on the thumb.

Barbara Lynn Shaffer
I don't like to fight but he makes me so mad.

Rebecca Jo Shaffer
Everything is funny, as long as it is happening to someone else.

FLOWER: WHITE ROSE

Richard Taylor Shaffer
If he scholars, let him go.

Steven Ray Shaffer
I wouldn't call it speeding, I was just trying to keep a safe distance ahead of the other cars.

Susan Jayne Shaffer Never mind the overcoat, button up that lip.

John Charles Sides
At least in my case they can't say "It's all in the mind."

Fay Colette Snider
As a general thing an individual who is neat in her person is neat in all things.

David John Spiker
I'm going to say my prayers now, does anyone want anything?

Linda Kaye Stahlman
When the devil was sick, could he prove it?

Cheryl Louise Starkey Letting yourself go is easy, the hard part is getting yourself back.

COLORS: LIGHT BLUE AND NAVY

Charles Earl Stuby
If people talked about only what they understood, the silence would become unbearable.

Donna Jane Whitford
When everything else fails, try doing what the teacher says to do.

Galen Edward Winebrenner
His singing voice is good except for the high notes.
Oh yes, and the low notes,
too.

'67 CLASS HISTORY

In a sincere, though slightly disarranged, attempt to highlight our mundane and trivial past, we find it difficult to describe thoroughly our many escapades. Our is an individualistic class; so in order to clear up any misconceptions, we submit this history.

As guiltless Freshmen, we were initiated into the thrilling and fascinating atmosphere of Hyndman-Londonderry High School. Halos in hand, our quiet, sensitive class of seventy frequented the halls--and detention halls--in search of good deeds. Our sponsors, Mrs. Harclerode and Mrs. Willis, considered us a challenge.

Entering our Sophomore year, we were somewhat hampered by the debris and destruction left behind by stampeding angels. As sadder-but-wiser Sophomores, we encountered a bit of humor--in other words, our financial situation. We were so poor we had to borrow "poor pills." Our president's anti-poverty program included one candy sale. With great vigor and a lot of work we turned this into a tremendous failure. Our sponsors, Mr. Porter and Mr. Bistline, considered us a mystery.

Approaching the grindstone for the eleventh year, we seriously considered going on relief, but things were about to change. As people enjoyed our delicious food at the dinners, we enjoyed their delightful money. Our Junior thespians dropped a few more pennies into the old class hat with the play "Half Past Teen." The arrival of our prom, "The Days of Wine and Roses," brought with it the chance to spend our hard earned money--as little as possible. Crippled again! Our sponsors, Mrs. Farley, Mr. Mellott, and Mr. Keller, considered us a lost cause.

As we entered our final year, with Londonderry removed from Hyndman High, we see the end to our long journey. Our play, "Hurricane Harriet," took the town by storm, thanks to Mrs. Harclerode and the kind people of Hyndman. Our yearbook and trip on the horizon promise a great time to come, and our bills, also on the horizon, promise a hot time in physics class. We wish to thank Mrs. Kipp and "Coach" McVicker, who now consider us a miracle. So with tattered wings and slightly tarnished halos, we fly our separate ways, leaving only this reminder. Now that all aspects have been duly clarified, the subject is hereby closed with all parties enlightened and all factions at peace.

Last Will and Testament

We the SENIOR CLASS OF 1967 Of Hyndman High School being of as sound a mind as is conceivable under the circumstances, and being fully aware of our impending doom to dissolution and liquification at the hands of fate on May 31, 1967, do hereby grant to our parents undying love and devotion for all of the patient kindness and gentle understanding that we so little deserve.

We cede to the faculty our respect and appreciation for the twelve years of excellent guidance and hard labor.

We also entrust the ensuing JUNIORS with an entirely new school system with which to battle tooth and claw after we have departed these musty halls, and to each individual member one of our moldy relics as follows: CHRISTINE AHLBURN bequeaths her notable size and grace to Clarence Hengst realizing that he will continue to grow. LOIS ALBRIGHT leaves her tendency to be shy to Mary Shirey in hopes she won't frighten herself. WILLIAM ALBRIGHT relinquishes his janitorial duties to Kenneth Clites and asks only that he take good care of Red and Troy. ROXANNA BOHN gives her warm smile and quiet nature to Mary Robinson knowing that she will use them to her best advantage. ADELE BUSH donates her dancing talents to Nedra Robosson with the understanding that she will not injure herself doing a modern dance routine. KAREN CLITES lends a dietary menu to Linda Jordan recommending that she follow it to the letter. ROSE CLITES endows Shirley Shroyer with her "how to get along in school without even trying" attitude. LINDA DERMER, laughing all the way, turns her giggle over to Wilma Brick. BEVERLY DIEHL places her soft silent vocal tones in the hands of Rita Cook with the understanding that she will purchase a megaphone so that she can be more clearly understood. LINDA KAY EMERICK allots to Janet Lehman her scholarly efforts demanding that she devour all available information. LINDA LOU EMERICK sacrifices her blanket on Gooseberry Beach to Barbara Leydig asking that she keep the sand off. CAROLYN EMERICK legates her characteristic smallness to Ronald Smeak in hopes that he will acquire some type of growing hormone. DEBORAH GETZ bequeaths her office position to Lettie Stahlman in the best interests of bosswoman Betty. RICHARD GRAY sacrifices his fishing line to Donald Kreigline. LARRY HAINES awards Larry Harden his long blond hair warning him not to tire very many barbers. LINDA HAROLD gives her seat in the music room to Anne Porter requesting that she continue to fill the hearts of Hyndman with music. LINDA HITE transfers her artistic talents to Melanie Cook. MICHAEL HOLLER willingly evacuates his seat in Coach's detention hall to make room for Sydney Emerick. ROGER HOLLER contributes his traveling techniques to William Ritchey. DAVID HORNER resigns his "to and from school" taxi job to Fred Topper with the understanding that the underclassmen shall never be late. CAROLYN HUFFMAN declares that Larry Ringler shall inherit her friendliness and adaptability. DONALD KENNEDY assigns his positions of uncertainty to Glenn Shaffer. LYNN KENNEL sends his masculine singing voice to Carl Logsdon and would like to see him at the Metropolitan Opera. STEVEN KIRKPATRICK delivers his excess auto parts to Anthony Monnett. DONALD LAFFERTY hands over his front seat on the school bus to James Bingman. ROBERT LEYDIG cedes his bag of pranks and wise sayings to Ron Gibbner. KATHY MAZER bestows upon Linda Stair her adult perception and deception. ALICE MERKEL'S ability to get along well with others is left to Bev Kennell. JOHN MILLER resigns his basketball position to Robert Miller being confident that he will lead the team to victory. LINDA MILLER wishes that her honesty and fairness go to Carolyn Emerick. STEPHEN MILLER hands the keys to his Honda to William Ryan and tells him to run it through both gas pumps. JAMES O'REILLY PASSES ON his wrestling togs to John Clites in hopes that something might rub off. STANLY PICK passes his dry wit to brother Harold and warns him not to choke on it. HARLAN PORTER gives John Harold his clues and hopes that he can solve the mystery of Coach McVicker. GARY RANKER relinquishes the key to the City of Brotherly Love to Ray Ranker. DENNIS SCRITCHFIELD surrenders his farm chores and livestock to William Shaffer, wondering all the way, the outcome of the farm. BARBARA SHAFFER turns her telephone over to Patricia Arnold asking only that she keep up tradition and keep the line busy. REBECCA SHAFFER gives Linda Scritchfield her 50 rings hoping she can find a boy for each of them. RICHARD SHAFFER bestows upon Donald Bryant his date-getting ability. STEVEN SHAFFER offers his insurance policy to John Dennison insisting that it be paid in full. SUSAN SHAFFER leaves Gwen Moore her versatility and charm. JOHN SIDES bestows upon James Logsdon his speed and agility and advises him that we can't all be faster than turtles. FAY SNIDER presents Sherry Kennell with her ultra-neat and feminine appearance. DAVID SPIKER honors Larry Elder by leaving him the presidential gavel and warns him to watch his thumbs. LINDA STAHLMAN loses her feminine appeal to the opposite sex to Sharon Horner. CHERYL STARKY transfers her wardrobe into the closet of Mary Bruck. CHARLES STUBY pops his muscles over to Jeff Holler and pleads with him to develop them. DONNA WHITFORD donates her reserved and serene personality to Ellen Emerick. GALEN WINEBRENNER bestows upon Garry Harden his state of constant confusion as he is leaving politics.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto subscribe our hands and seal on this the 20th day of January, 1967.
